HUMAN TRAFFICKING AND SUBSTANCE USE

PRESENTED BY HOMELAND SECURITY INVESTIGATIONS

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Define human trafficking and distinguish it from human smuggling.
- Identify indicators of labor and sex trafficking and recognize common recruitment, control, and exploitation tactics.
- Describe trauma-informed, victim-centered approaches and appropriate reporting and referral resources.
- Explain the relationship between human trafficking and substance use, including how drugs and alcohol may be used to control or exploit victims.
- Recognize how addiction, withdrawal, and trauma affect victims' ability to seek help, disclose exploitation, or participate in investigations.
